MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 11 .- The echoes of last night's hurrahing for Harrison and Reid were still to be heard in Minneapolis toiny. The crowds hurrying to the trains, the toral arches still standing, and fluttering banners were all a reminder of the exciting scenes which accompanied the nomination of the Republican presidential ticket. The Executive Committee and the ittee to notify the successful nomineer in November were in session at the West Hotel, but everybody else who had not de-parted for home dropped politics for the moment and sought relaxation from the intense strain of the past week in the seductions of base ball and the charms of Lake Minnetonka. The excursion to Duluth also drew away a large support of the contest past of the contes also drew away a large number. Mr. Clarkson, who was perhaps the most ces, was one of the first to announce his devotion to the nominees and his opinion that they were not doomed to defeat in November. The events of the week have shown how futile, anyhow, is the office of self-inspired leader among the rank and file. In many instances was this demonstrated by the sudden breaks that occurred in those delegations which the managers of one side or the other supposed were doclle to their leader-When the contest reached its critical the delegates evinced a sudden to go ca their own responsi-and the persuasions of the were singularly ineffective to change their intentions. EXPRESSIONS OF OPINION.

THE NOMINATION.

YORK, June 11.—The World this morning has expressions of opinion on the nomination of President Harrison from Messrs. Clarkson, Hiscock, Depew and New. Mr. Clarkson says that now that the contes is over Gen. Harrison's nomina-tion will meet with indorse-ment at the poils. After all he believed and nothing to be ashamed of. Republicans preferences here, will unite for the success of the party and the party's candidate. Hon. Frank Hiscock says he is pleased and

Hon. Frank Hiscock says he is pleased and gratified at the nomination. He had no doubt it would be ratified by the people at the election in November.

Mr. Depew says the people wanted Harrison and the convention respected their views. He says he has not discovered the slightest trace of factional bitterness and predicts that the Republican party will be unanimous in support of the ticket. Mr. New says the friends of Gen. Harrison have more than realized every claim they have made in tavor of his success in the convention. They had won a victory that would have been impossible had they not been backed by the popular appreciation of Gen. Harrison's eminent qualifications for renomination and election.

Ex-Senator Henry W. Blair of New Hampshire is at the Astor House.

"I am frank to state," said Mr. Blair, yesterday, "I am a friend of the President. I believe that he has well earned the indorsement of his party.

"I did not even request anyone to present my name to the Minneapolis convention. I think we are going to have a very spirited campaign throughout the country and that the decisive fight will take place right here in New York. There is some defection in the Republicans in the West, but that will be more than balanced by the loyalty of New England to the Republican faith.

"I think that Mr. Cleveland will be the nominee of his party and most probably Gov. Boles will be his mate on the ticket."

MICHENER PLEASED.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 11.—Hon. L. T. Michener said: "It was a great convention in the personnel of the delegations, the disinguished men who either formed a part of its body or were lookers-on and assisted in its councils, in the dramatic surprise which introduced Mr. Blaine as a formal candidate demonstrated to the world that the Presi-dent would be renominated. It was also re-markable because of the fact that there was nothing of bitterness either felt or expressed on the part of those who were supporting the different candidates, although the battle was on the part of those who were supporting the different candidates, aithough the battle was earn-selly fought on both sides. The party is to be congratulated that there are no wounds to heal, but that the nomination is made in a way as to make every delegate proud in the consciousness that he has neither done nor said anything during the strife which can prove a detriment to the party in the approaching campaign."

CHAUNCEY DENIES IT.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June Îl.—A reporter saw Chauncey M. Depew at the West this morning and asked him what there was in the report that he was to succeed Blaine as Sec-retary of State. Mr. Depew was all smiles and gratification over the Harrisonian suc-cess, but he denied in the most emphatic way that there was anything in the report about himself. "Either now or in the future?" asked the reporter. "Neither now, nor in the future," replied the chief orator of the administration forces.

As WARNER MILLER VIEWS IT.

CHICAGO. Ill., June 11.—"There will be no knives wielded in New York on election day," said Warner Miller, one of the "big four" delegates from New York at the Auditorium to-day. "The Republican party will support Harrison loyally and enthusiastically. I have been in too many political battles to cherish resentment against the nominee and I never used the political knife in my life and never will. I supported Mr. Blaine because it was my best judgment that he would be the strongest man, partienlarly in the upper counties in New York. I decided to support Mr. Blaine only after I had received numerous dispatches from those sections requesting me to vote for him. But now we are all for Harrison and victory and there are no factions and there will be none. I believe Mr. Harrison is stronger in New York to-day than he was in 1888 when he swept the State. Republicans and decent Democrat have been aroused before by the theft of New York State. committed last fall, and the people will express their sentiments on these disreputable methods in a very emphatic way. Then too, Mr. Beld will add greatly to the strength of the ticket." AS WARNER MILLER VIEWS IT.

nation. But word went out from the Harrison headquarters immediately after the resignation was published that no friend of Mr. Harrison was to say one word against Mr. Blaine. The provocation was great, for the friends of Mr. Blaine were abusing the Fresident on the account of the officeholders who were here and on others, accounts. But so far as they could control the crowd the Harrison leaders would not permit one word to be uttered against his chief rival. The errors of Mr. Harrison's friends were few working for Busine. The harrison is every word indicated it. "With Blaine as our candidate we could have won with ease," heard of the incident and went immediately to offer an apology for the threat. And so they continuev to conduct their campaign in a dignified way without acrimony or personal abuse with the result that they made many friends and few enemies.

The friends of Mr. Blaine have known for a week that he could hardly be nominated. They tried in vain to unite his strength on another man, but that plan was blocked continually by the delegates from the Northwest. They said that their first choice was Blaine, but after him they wanted Harrison. To have tried to carry Blaine's strength to a dark horse would have resulted only in strengthening the Harrison is a great triumph for him and the Press of the provision of the pression of President the Arrison and the pression of the party. New Orleans, La., June 11.—Picegune: "The nomination of Mr. Harrison is only another evidence of the power of political machines. Before the people Mr. Blaine would be greatly the strongest man, but in the count, under the President's political appointees, a popular man has very little show. Chicago, Ill., June H.—Heraid: The patriotic people of the United States. without regard to political amblations, will feel like rejoicing at the President's success. It is a triumph of decency over dishonesty, of candor over duplicity, of conservative common sense over fatuous idioty. No other Republican who desired a second, nomination from his party encountered opposition of such character as that which President Harrison has just successfully contended. The discovery, perhaps, when he was to receive, as he had supposed, a unanimous renomination, that he had unwittingly entertained for three years a traitor in his Calbiate' is calculated to make him and his friends look with suspicion on the professions which this traitor and his aillies may make touching their support of the ticket nominated at Minneapolis. Mr. Blaine cannot, of course, be expected openly to advocate Harrison's re-election. The President will be satisfied, no doubt, if he can be assured that his late exercitary of state will not secretly connive at his defeat. The nomination of whitelaw Reid of New York, for Vice-President, is a creditable selection, though it cannot be said that it adds any particular strength to the ticket.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 11.—Tisse: "Blaine in his suppreme moment of disaster makes no sign. All that is left him of consolation now is that poor shred, the Clarkson letter, which he never formally recalled. The splendid prodity is failen. Blaine's public career is forever closed. Washington, D. C., June II.—Post: "Whatever criticism may be made upon the work of the Minneapolis Convention upon the work of the Minneapolis Convention upon the score of expediency or wisdom, it cannot be gainsaid that the renomination of Harrison, viewed from a merely party standpoint, gives to the ticket a thoroughly representative character. Whether it be for better or worse, whether it points to victory or defeat, there can be no question as to the stall wartness of the President's Republicanism. He stands for all there is in the party that gives it a distinctive individuality from the obnoxious force bill down to the end of the chapter. There is nothing to be read between the lines of his political professions. Compared with the verity of his own princicles; the platform upon which he is called to stand is weak and vapid."

WHITELAW REID OF NEW YORK NAMED FOR MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June II.—The evening session to nominate the candidate for Vice-President was called to order by Chairman McKinley at 8:07 o'clock, at which time a majority of the delegates were in their seats. The nominee for the Vice-Presidency was se-lected at a meeting of the New York delegalected at a meeting of the New York delega-tion, held an hour before the convention was called to order. By tacit consent the naming of the vice-presidential candidate was left to the New York delegation.

The delegation at its meeting was not long in arriving at the conclusion to present the name of Whitelaw Reid. The only other name discussed was that of Vice-President Morton, and in the end the agreement upon Mr. Beld was unanimous. Chairman Mc-Kinley announced that the next thing in order was the presentation of names for the nomination to the Vice-Presidency. Mr. Cannon of Utah announced that George A. Salisbury had been made National Committeeman from Utah in place of Arthur Brown. Mr. Baird of Illinois wanted to offer a motion to have the doors opened to the public, but the Chairman informed him that an order to that effect had been made. that an order to that elect had been made. The announcement was emphasized a minute later by the noise of feet in the gallery as the public began to fill the seats. The noise almost drowned the clerk's voice as he called the roll of States. The call proceeded with-out interruption until New York was reached. Then State Senator O'Connor was recognized, and took the platform to nomi nate Hon. Whitelaw Reid for Vice-President REID HONORED.

Mr. O'Connor said: "At a meeting of the New York delegation, duly called, in the ab-sence of Senator Miller I was chosen Chair-man and was instructed to present the name of a distinguished citizen of the State of New York in nomination for the Vice-Presidency As you all know a great majority of that del egation, since the opening of the convention have been working very strenuously to secure the nomination of a candidate that this convention did not think fit to accept. When Mr. O'Connor was through Gov. Bulkeley of Connecticut was recognized, but he gave way to Gen. Horace Porter, who took the platform and was warmly received. In seconding the nomination he said:

This gentleman by his private worth and public services has well commended himself not only to the people of the Empire State,

He is prominent to-day as New York's favorite son. The Republican party has not been so prolific of favorite sons as the Democracy. Mr. Reid had received his training in the school of American journalism under Horace Greeley. [Applause.] The people demanded his appointment to be Minister to France at a very critical diplomatic period. Scarcely was he installed in office than there fell upon him the solution of the most complicated. question known in diplomacy between the two countries. That he had solved it was a matter of pride to every American. Gen. Porter also said that Mr. Reid had had

Gen. Porter also said that Mr. Reid had had trouble with the Typographical Union, but the President of the organization had certified in writing that the dispute was settled. Gen. Porter then read a communication signed by John Kenny, President of Typographical Union, No. 6, of New York and William J. Brennan, Robert A. Costello, Thomas Hancock and Pierce P. Hurley, a committee of the union, stating that the differences between the New York Tribune and the union were settled to the complete satisfaction of both sides, and indorsing Mr. Reid's candidacy for the nomination as Vice-President. In conclusion Gen. Porter said that with Whitelaw Reid they would march to victory. Gov. Bulkeley of Connecticut then took the platform and seconded the nomination. Though the delegation from Connecticut had come on the floor favoring another candidate than the one chosen they would give the ticket the same loyalty and endeavor for success that they gave Benjamin Harrison four years ago.

REED OF MAINE.

At the conclusion of the speech of Gov. Bulkeley, J. C. Settle of Tennessee got the floor. A delegate from West Virginia tried to move the unanimous selection of Mr. Reid, but Settle insisted in taking the platform, and on behalf of Tennessee nominated "one of the grandest characters in American politics, Hon. Thomas B. Reed of Maine."

Mr. Reed's named was greeted with loud cheering, especially from the Southern delegates.

cheering, especially from the Southern delegates.

C. M. Lowthan of Virginia, sot the platform to second the nomination. He said that the name of Reed would sweep the south. Much had had been said of silver and the tariff, but there was a question overriding all others—the rights of American citizens. The South wanted a free ballot and a fair count. There was no man to whom the American people owed a higher debt of gratitude than to Thomas B. Reed. He seconded the nomination, not in behalf of any delegation, but in behalf of the great Republican party of this nation.

Mr. Littlefield of Maine asked the delegates to decline to vote for Mr. Reed of Maine until it was assured that Mr. Reed's authority was secured.

The delegates and visitors are leaving town as last as the railroads can take them. The exodus commenced after the contest for the head of the ticket had been decided and so ample were the facilities provided that this morning the hotels and streets present something like their normal condition. John C. New, pretty well worn out by the exacting labors of the week, left here for Indianapolis last evening, and will sail for London to resume his duties as Consul-General next week. Gov. Although there are still here and there some traces of bitterness engendered by the events of the week, the supporters of Riaine, as a general thing, have manifested a loyal willingness to let by, gones be by-gones and to work unitedly and harmoniously for the success of the ticket. Even the leaders of the Blaine movement, such as gour, Platt and Clarkson, say that party-success must not be endangered by apathy and lucewarmness, but that they will take off their coats and work for the success of the ticket with as much earnestness and heartiness as though it was their favorite that was to be voted for in November. They promise, moreover, an active and stirring campaign. There will be no lack of funds, it is said, for this purpose.

Filley's Last Appeal.

Filley's Last Appeal.

The manner in which Mr. Kerens turned down Mr. Filley at Minneapolis will make that occasion for a long time memorable in the history of Missouri politics. As an interesting tentribution to the literature of the subjective following is appended, it being copy of a circular addressed to the Missouri delegation, giving suggestions why Mr. Filley should be returned as National Committeeman and why Mr. Kerens should not be advanced to that position and which was circulated pretty freely around Minneapolis while the matter was pending:

To the Members of the Missouri Delegation:

It is conceded that the member of the National Committee should be taken from the city of St. Louis. The two candidates for that position are Channes, I. Filley and Richard C. Kerens. You are respectively requested to care the position are channes and assenting requested to care the position of the Missouri Delegation.

THE PEWALE BURGLAR.

Is Recognized as a Professional Beggar, Who Has Econ Kined.

Mrs. Withemina Goepling, the supposed female burgiar of Cheltenham, was released on bond this morning, with Paul Kempp as security. Counselor Busch and Jeff Storts developed quite an interest in the woman as soon as her fat bank account was established and had no difficulty in finding a bonds man for her. She is a middle age and had no difficulty in finding a bondsman for her. She is a middle aged German woman, and has a baby about 2 years old. She claims that her husband died before the child was born, and that she has no husband now at all, and has been living alone instead of with some man as reported by the police. The woman has been arrested and fined several times for begging on the streets, and in every instance she paid her fine. On the 21st of May last year she was fined $50, on June 13, $100 and in July $100. She was arrested and fined under the name of either Mira or Philomena Doepking. Twice she paid the fine at once, and the third time after spending a couple of days at the Workhouse. She was also fined once for disturbing the peace. When begging on the streets she always has her child on her arms, and it looks so hungry and sickly that the woman gets a great many dimes and nickels from the sympathizing passers by. Her favorite place for begging is on Olive street near the Post-office. The police were under the impression yesterday that Mrs. Goepling was the burglar who committed the recent burglaries in Ellendale, but none of the stolen articles were found in her home, and there is no evidence so far to connect her with them. She is, however, a professional beggar of the worst kind and keeps her baby half slarved in order to help her in her begging. The time that she paid her fine after being sent to the Work-house is well remembered by Deputy Marshal Rupert. He took her to her home as a priboner so that she could get the money with which to pay the fine, and be says that she counted it out from a roll of $500 which she had in her trank. The fine amounted to $100.

HOT WEATHER.

A Hot Wave Is Going Over the Western

Country. ording to Sergt. Herndon, United States Signal Service Observer, St. Louis is to-day the hottest place in the country. At Memphis and New Orleans at 7 o'clock this morning the mercury was at 82 deg., while St. Louis registered only 78 deg. At 1:20 this morning the morcury was at 82 deg., while St. Louis registered only 78 deg. At 1:20 this afternoon the thermometer on the Custom-house dome stood at 91, and Sergt. Herndon said the mercury would probably elimb to 2915 or 92 this afternoon.

The visitation of heat covers the region between the Rocky Mountains and the Mississispip and from South Dakota to the Gulf. Outside of this region the temperature is no ways remarkable for the season. This high temperature is likely to prevail until Monday. It may be a little warmer on Sunday than it is to-day, but not much. It will be coooler in Kansas to-morrow than it is to-day, and it is likely that the cool wave will reach St. Louis by Monday.

Owing to the very unpropitious and backward weather throughout April and May this hot wave seems to have found the people unprepared for it, and the popular judgment would be that real hot weather has come along this year unusually late. The Signal Service records, however, show that the highest temperature renched before June Hast year was 90 deg., on June 8. This indicates that the present heated wave is not much, if any, behind time.

The following was posted on the Merchants' Exchange to-day by Observer Herndon:

[Crowds Watched the Bulletins.

The news from Minneapolis was eagerly in all quarters of yesterday. From early in the ing the sidewalks in morning the sidewalks in front of the Post-Disparch office were thronged with excited people anxious to read every bulletin. At times the crowd grew so large that it was with difficulty the police kept chough room for the passage of the cable cars. In the big gathering were Blaine men, Harrison men and McKinley also had his admirers. Then there were many Democrats, a majority of whom seemed to favor Harrison, on the theory that he was the easiest man to defeat.

The News on 'Change.

On 'Change far more attention was paid yesterday to the bulletins from Minneapolis than to trading, and during the last half hour of to trading, and during the last half nour of the session the grain pit was almost deserted, while a dense throng extended from the entrance to far beyond the fountain. There was a great deal of excitement. Whenever the reports indicated cheering at Minneapolis the cheers were reproduced on the floor. Little partisanship for or against Blaine was exhibited, but the Democrats were on all sides expressing confidence that whoever was nominated would be beaten.

Casualties.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 11 .- A horrible street car accident occurred at this place late last evening on the Chattahoochee electric line, which resulted in the death of Dr. R. M. Auten, George W. Allen, Ed. Davis, Avery Chastaine, superintendent of the road, and R. Coleman. The ones who sustained serious injuries are T. R. Coleman, Z. T. Delk, Wylle Robertson, Charles W. Crosh, Miss Barty Bryant and W. R. Boring, all of Atlanta. This line is propelled by electricity, but the motor being out of order dummy engines were being used on the road, and as one of the powerful little engines was pulling two coaches up a steep grade, just as the apex was reached both coaches jumped the track, rolling down a steep embankment, leaving the engine on the track. The coaches were utterly demolished. Auten, George W. Allen, Ed. Davis, Avery

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT. CANON CITY, Cal., June 11 .- A peculiar accident occurred here yesterday by which one man was fatally and others seriously injured and a number of additional men slightly bruised. The guards at the penitentiary were loading their guns preparatory to taking charge of the convicts who work upon the State ditch. C. F. Evans, one of the the State ditch. C. F. Evans, one of the guards, was loading his rifie when it was accidentally discharged, the ball striking the stone floor. A plees of the builet glanced and hit John Astbury, another guard, in the head, fatally injuring him. Another piece struck a guard named Colby in the neck, and still another piece hit Goidst, a guard, in the ear, and Metand, a convict, in the knee. Several others were struck by pieces of stone and lend, but they were not badly hurt.

BELLAIRE, O., June 11 .- At a late hour last night an electric car between Bellaire and Wheeling, W. Va., was struck at a crossing by a Baltimore & Ohio engine at Benwood, W. Va. It was crowded with passengers.
Miss kate Fizzatrick and Mrs. Charles Miller were killed and Joseph Emshelmer fatally injured. All were of Wheeling. The car was completely demolished.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING. LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 11 .- At Paris yesterday Charles Rea and Will Hadel, both colored, were struck by lightning while standing under a tree. Rea was killed and Hadel fatally injured.

SUICIDES.

Miss Sarah Willetts Drowned Herself While Insane. McLouth, Kan., June 11 .- Miss Mary Willetts, the 28-year-old daughter of John F. Willetts, national lecturer of the Alliance and chairman of the last Kansas House of Repdrowning in a horse pond near her home, she had been suffering for some time from metal aberration, resulting from grippe.

SUICIDED IN PRISON. CHESTER, Ill., June 11 .- Yesterday morning at 2 o'clock an attendant in the hospital for insane criminals at this place, in making his rounds found William Birch banging to the pars of his cell door by his bed sheet. Dr. Paterson, the Superintendent, was at once notified but the man was quite dead. The attendant had paused at his cell door an bour previously and found birch asleep. He must have wakened shortly afterwards and hung himself. He was a well-known Cook County burgiar, who had been doing time at Jollet but was sent to the Chester Hospital in consequence of mental aberration. It is the first death among the patients in this new lustitution.

TWO POLICEMEN WOUNDED.

Result of a Riot Among Striking Dock

TONAWANDA, N. Y., June 11.-There was a riot here this morning in which two policemen were wounded, one possibly fatally. The dock laborers, who are on strike to the number of over 500, marched to Weston's dock where "seabs" and farm rs were unloading barges. The latter scattered in all directions on the appearance of the mob. Six policemen who were at the dock to prevent trouble, ordered the strikers not to go on the docks. They ignored the order and while forcing their way to the docks were fired upon by Weston's fireman. The strikers began to stone freman. The strikers began to stone the police who returned the volley with shots from their revolvers. The trikers used their guns and the police had to run for their ives. One non-union man was caught hiding in a shed and was hearly stoned to death. The mob then went to the Island and threw the men off who were working on the boats. Two policemen were so badly injured that they will probably die. The strikers are now stationed around the Island. The police are powerless and the Sheriff has been telegraphed for. Great excitement prevails.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—Col, L. L. Polk, President of the Farmers' Alliance, died at Garneld Hospital at 11:18 this morndied at Garfield Hospital at 11:18 this morning. Col. Polk was a relative of President Polk. He was a native of North Carolina, where he was born about 55 years ago; his education was received in the common schools. During the war he served for a time in the Confederate army and resigned to go to the Legislature, to which body he had been elected. Later he filled for several years the office of Commissioner of Agriculture for North Carolina and later still he began the publication of the Frogressive Farmer, which he managed for a long time. At the time of his death he was serving his third term as President of the body to which he has given so much of his time and attention. Col. Polk's home was at taleigh, N. O. He leaves a wife and three children. Col. Polk was of great value to his party as a stump speaker, and was an able writer on topics of particular interest to the farmers. The People's party will meet in convention in Omaha in about a month, and the probability is that had Col. Polk survived he would have been nominated for President or Vice-President if the party should have decided to the value to the service of the party should have decided to the party of the service of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the party should have decided to the party of the p

Redicharpolis, Ind., June 11.—Emory P.
Beauchamp, consul at Aix-in-Unapelle under President Grant, yesterday died at the Central Indiana Hospital for the Insane. Mr.
Beauchamp was a lawyer of Terre Haute, Ind., who was sent to Aix by President Grant in 1874. He passed the most brilliant consular examination in Washington. While on leave of absence he visited England and was invited by Lord Chief Justice Cockbu who presided in the Tichborne trial, to a seat on the bench. He dug up the peerage record also and asserted his right to the extinct title of Earl of Warwick, by which title he was afterwards known.

WHO IS HE?

Desperate Attempt of a Stranger to Kill

CHICAGO, June 11 .- An unknown man, supposed to be from St. Louis, Mo., made desperate attempt at suicide in this city to day. He is still alive, but the County Hos pital physicians say his wounds are fatal. He was first seen walking along the Rock Island tracks at Twenty-third street this morning with a satchel in his hand. Suddenly he stopped his hand. Suddenly he stopped and threw the satchel to one side, and drawing a pistol, shot himself three times in the head. He was unconscious when picked up. In his pocket was a copy of a St. Louis paper of June 10, a note book containing the address of Mr. Fowler, 319 Canal street, St. Louis, and some figures, which indicate that the man had worked for Fowler during February and March, 1892.

The suicide's name was obliterated from the book and cut out from his clothing. The man is about 24 years old, weighs about 150 pounds and is of Irish descent. He has brown hair, a full, pleasant face and a sandy mustache, He wore a white shirt-blue pants and a dark coat. His clothing was of medium quality, neither very good nor very bad.

There is no Canal street in St. Louis and no one named Fowler lives on any street which even resembles Canal street in spelling.

The theater was owned by ex-Sehator Tabor and valued at GROCERIES ABLAZE. CLEVELAND, O., June 11 .- Fire in the W. P. Southworth's Grocery Co.'s wholesale and retail grocery, No. 114 to 118 Ontario street, this morning caused a loss of about $50,000, The fire broke out in the fourth story and was principally confined to that floor. Goods stored on two of the floors beneath were badly damaged by water and smoke. The damage is mostly to stock stored in the wholesale department. Loss is fully covered by insurance.

Barnum & Bailey's Last Performance. Barnum & Batley's Circus, Menagerle and Spectacle will give their last performance to-night. The attendance has been enormous all week, and after the performance to-night the big tent, with all the wonders it contains, will be removed to Chicago. The circus is the most elaborate ever put on the road, and despite the enormous expense attached to running it, has been yielding a fortune to its owners. It has many new features and all Answers O'Neil's Description.

The body of a boy, apparently 10 years of age, was found in the river at the foot of this morning by a young man named Riemp. The police were immediately notified. The description of the body is similar to that of Joseph O'Neil, who was drowned at the foot of Dickson street on Wednesday, June 8. The boy is about 10 years old, dark hair, knee pants, striped shirt waist. The Coroner was notified.

MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE DISTRIBUTION. The Call From Adjacent Towns and Counties Increasing.

At the distributing depot of the Merchants' Exchange flood relief fund the call for food was about what it has been for several days. was about what it has been for several days. A number of beneficiaries were removed from the list and a few added. A great many of those who have received aid at the main depot are now fed at the branch depots, and at these latter the demand is increasing. Hundreds were taken care of by their neighbors, who are no longer able to their neighbors, who are no longer able to supply their needs, and in consequence, calls have been made upon 5t. Louis. The shipments of provisions and clothing to out-side points was very heavy to-day and it is expected that the near future will show an increase, rather than a decrease in this re-spect.

money collected and donated amounted to $1,031, the disbursements $100, leaving in the treasury $381.

The Disbursement Committee reported that the sufferers were being cared for as good as could be expected. Provisions were given them to last several days. Donations are not being received as would be liked, but notwithstanding, they are not suffering any inconvenience. The demands from the East side, East Carondelet and vicinity are not as numerous and the stock are being provided with feed on the high lands. The committee tendered a vote of thanks to the members of the Carondelet Lyceum company for the entertainment which they gave for the benefit of the flood sufferers. Chairman Meegan reported that there was enough money on hand to care for the sufferers for a number of days, and in case they were pressed they could obtain means by making a requisition on the Merchants' Exchange Relief Committee.

New York, June 11.—Father James Con-nolly, Secretary to His Grace, Archbishop Corrigan, smiled last evening when a re-porter handed him a cablegram which the Very Rev. Morris J. Campbell, Provincial of the Society of Jesus, received yesterday from Rome. His pleasant face wreathed in smiles and his bright eyes sparkled as he perused it. The message chronicled a triumph for the opponents of the Faribault parochial school system, which in America embrace ninetenths of the Catholic hierarchy, with Archibishop Corrigan as their most aggressive leader, while it means a political defeat for its most potent advocates. His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons and His Grace Archibishop Ireland, with their lesser supporters. This is why Father Connolly smiled a charitable but an unnistakeable smile of satisfaction as he read the following cablegram:

ROME, June 10, 1892.

An official letter signed by the Prefect of the Propaganda has been addressed to the Civilita Cattolies and published to-day. The letter expresses the Prope's sorrow at the attacks directed against it and preciaims its writers the fearless defenders of justice and the interess to religion. It confirms the Papai briefs favoring the Civilita and declares it to have been always true and devoted to the Holy Sec. That taxt of the letter has been mailed you.

'The letter seems to be solf-explanatory,' said Father Connoliy, 'and I cannot see that it invites any comment. However, there are two points which I will explain: In the first place it is plain the Holy Father desires to repudiate the ciaim that the position the Civilla assumed in the controversy over the Faribault-school question was antagonistic to that held in the Propaganda, and it is evident that these attacks, emanating from whatever source, were highly displeasing to the Vatican.

ident that these attacks, emanating from whatever source, were highly displeasing to the Vatican.

"The Civilia has always been edited by the most learned men of home; men who have always been estseemed highly by the Vatican for their wise and disnified position on questions of church discipline which have arisen from time to time. Of course in matters of faith and morals there are no differences among the canonists of the church. The second point is this: It confirms the papil briefs.

"Pope Plus IX. on several occasions wrote official letters to the editors of the Civilia approving the wise utterances of that paper on certain grave questions which were prought to the attention of the Propaganda. The fact that Pope Leo confirms these briefs is complete evidence that the Vatican approves the position which the Civilia took so agressively on the Faribault school system." Father Connoily was asked what explanation there is of Archbishop ireland's repeated declarations that the Civilia's recent utterances had been condemned at the Vatican and his own position on the school question aproved and confirmed by the Pope. That remains for him to explain, said the Archbishop's Secretary, with a dublous shake of his head.

His Grace could not be seen last night, but Pather Connolly said he thought that the Archbishop's would desire to add nothing to to what he had said.

Walter Nelson Will Be Executed f. r Murdering His Wife.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 11.-In the County court of Oyer and Terminer this morning Walter Nelson was sentenced to be executed at Clinton prison by electricity during the week beginning July 25. Nelson is 27 years old and was convicted of murdering his wife, 20 years of age, cutting her throat with razor. The crime occurred on Sunday night, week previous. Nelson went to the he where his wife was staying and asked to see her. She came out upon the steps and he seized her by the throat, dragging her about ten feet, laid her upon the ground and drew a nasor across her neck, almost severing the head from the body. In his confession he said he was sorry he did not cut her head off so that he could send it to her sister.

NINE PEOPLE POISONED.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 11.—An attempt at a wholesale poisoning which may yet end in the loss of several lives is reported from Osborne's Mills, in Roane County, thirty miles distant, to-day. A day or two ago Jesse Shamblin, his wife and five chilago Jesse Shamblin, his wife and five children and C. W. Slump and Jos, Snyder, two men who worked at the mills and boarded with Shamblin, were suddenly and violently taken sick. Fortunately some one happened along about that time and found the nine people foo sick to help each other or themselves. A physician was hurriedly sent for but would have arrived too late had they not all taken an overdose of the poison, causing them to vomit and throw up the Contents of the stomach. By almost superhuman exertions, Dr. Fox, with the aid of neighbors, succeeded in getting emetics down the throats of the sufferers. By this means and the administration of antidotes all of the people were saved at the time and may pull through, although several of them are still dangerously ill. "Rough on Rats" is believed to have been the poison used and a woman, a relative by marriage, is suspected of having committed the crime.

TANEY COUNTY LYNCHERS. TANEY COUNTY LYNCHERS.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 11.—W. D. Snapp testified yesterday, in the trial of the sixteen alleged lynchers of Taney County who are being tried for the killing of williams and Bright, that he heard Mat Day, the old Bald-Knobber defendant, who is charged with administering the oath to the mob the night of the lynching, tell a man in Cline's store on the afternoon before the killing of Williams and Bright that there would be fun in town that night. George W.Friend was put on the stand, but the attorneys for the defense objected to his testimony on the ground that, as an alleged accompilee and cudefendant, his testimeny was inadmissible. Justice Fields, who is trying the case, reserved his decision until this morning and adjourned his court until that time.

The burglar, a swarthy Mexican, dropped like a log after the first shot.

COUNTER CHARGES.

Mrs. Jessie Hall, Who Sued Paige For a

CHICAGO, Ill., June 11 .- Mrs. Jessie Hall, he actress who asks for $900,000 from J. W Paige of New Haven, Conn., the wealthy manufacturer of type-setting machines for breach of promise to marry, and Edwin M. Grant, were held to the Grand-jury in bonds of $400 each by Justice White last night on a charge of unlawfully living together as husband and wife, as Grant has a legal wife. Since the time when it was alleged that Mr. Since the time when it was alleged that Mr. Paige discarded his betrothed she and her mother have been liv ing with Grant's family in Hartford, Conn. Grant claims that at his wife's request he accompanied Mrs. Hall to this city to aid her in instituting court proceedings a gainst Paige, and that they registered at various hotels under allases by advice of Mrs. Hall's lawyers. The complainant is Stophen Rogers of New Haven, who is the father-in-law of Grant and an employe of Paige. He testified that he had found Grant and Mrs. Hall in a room at a liotel in partial dishabile. Clerks of the hotels at which they stopped testified that they occupied separate rooms. One of them gave evidence that they had registered at the hotel as husband and wife.

Whisky Trust Cases. CHICAGO, Ill., June 11.—The three members of the Whisky Trust who reside in this district, President Greenhut of Peorla, Ill. Secretary Peter J. Hennessy and Directo Nelson Morris of this city, against whom the first indictments were quashed by Judge Nelson of Boston, will be asked to give ball second time on the indictment returned by the Boston Grand-jury. Each of them will decline to give bond for his appearance in Bosten. The only alternative the United States Commissioner will have will be to order the three locked up. As soon as this is done writs of habeas corpus will be used out in the United States Courts for the release of the indicted men on the ground that they have committed no crime for which they can be taken to Boston to stand trial. It will also be argued that under the United States laws they must be tried in the district in which they lived at the time the alleged offense was committed. The object of this move will be to force a hearing on the merits of the case here.

SORE THROATS.

Sore throat is the cause of more than half the trouble that comes from contagious diseases. The germs of these maladies such as scarlet fever, diphtheria, mumps, measles, small-pox and the like float in the air. They can be taken into the human system without danger, if they do not find an abraded surface. If they do, they enter the blood and swarm in millions. It is well known that diphtheria can be taken from a wound on the skin on the body. It is particularly noticeable that when such malady as diphtheria rages it always attacks people after they have caught a slight cold. When you take cold, therefore, and your throat is sore get a bottle of REID'S GERMAN COUGH & KIDNEY CURE at once and take it freely. If your druggist will not order it for you write to us. M'KINLEY'S SPEECH.

Mr. McKinley's speech on taking the chair of the Republican Convention was as witless and foolish as his famous "cheap and nasty" deliverances during the campaign of 1890. The argument for protection, fallacious though it is, can easily be thrown into a form in which it will have at least the semblance of reason and which a rational man, with a little logical dexterity, can defend without writing himself down an ass. But Mr. McKINLEY did not do this. He again declares the purpose of the Republican party to raise the revenue ecessary to carry on the Government and and at the same time "protect American industry" by taxing the foreigners who dare to sell us anything. "We propose," he says, "to raise our money to pay public expenses by taxing the products of other nations rather than by taxing the products of our own people. The Democratic party pelleve in direct taxation, that is in taxing purselves; but we do not believe in that principle as long as we can find anybody lse to tax."

In other words he will raise his own people to prosperlty by plundering the rest of the world. Foolish and barbarous as this doctrine is it is perfectly natural that it should be adopted by the Republican orators. Patriotism and plunder are inextricably associated in the McKinley-

Of course Mr. McKinley, who is a very clever man, knows that when he talks about taxing foreigners and making them support us in luxurious prosperity he talks nonsense. He honestly believes in protection because he honestly believes in plutocracy. But he knows that on this point the people are against him and therefore the less said about it the better He appeals to the ignorance and prejudice of his hearers, hoping that the voice of reason will be drowned by the sound of the tom-tom. It is not a dignified thing for him to do nor is it likely to bring success, but it is the only thing that can be done and he therefore does it with commendable unction.

It is significant that at this moment, when every one expected a dignified and manly appeal to reason and common sense the author of the McKinley law resorted to petty tactics and an appeal to sordid motives. That measure was designed and executed in the interest of men who wish to possess themselves of the earnings of the masses of workingmen. Mr. McKinley's speech is an attempt to divert the attention of the people who are robbed from the real facts by bamboozling them into the belief that they can rob "the foreigners." It is a transparent confidence game which a well trained bunco man would hardly consider safe. It presumes not only upon the dishonesty of the victim, but upon his stupidity, and is an insult alike to the moral sense and to the intelligence of the American people. If this speech is a sample of what Mr. McKinley has to offer in defense of Republican policy it ought to be an easy thing for the Democrats to show up its iniquity to the satisfaction of all free-

Politics does make strange bed-fellows sometimes, and there was some very strange and sudden flopping at Minneapolis. At one time things got so Blainish that Mrs. R. C. KERENS forgot her husband's recent elevation to the position of boss of the HARRISON forces from Missouri and started and led the demonstrations for his former idol, BLAINE. But Col. KERENS himself declined to flop twice in one day. Putting all sweet and tender star route memories behind him he stood as firm for HARRISON as that great enemy of the Pope, Col. SHEPARD of the Mail and Express. It is to be hoped for Col. KERENS' sake the Harrison people will be able to muzzle Col. SHEPARD during the pending campaign. A hundred Burchards would not make one SHEPARD, and unless Elder HARRISON muzzles Elder SHEPARD the Catholic vote delivered by Col. KERENS will not entitle him to a very large control over Elder HARRISON'S second term patronage.

It does not look like harmony. The refusal to suspend the rules and make the nomination unanimous when it was seen that HARRISON was sure of it is unprece dented. The leaders of the Blaine movement may force Mr. HARRISON to pay them their price for support, but he cannot buy those who loved BLAINE and believed in him as the greatest Republican. Mr. HARRISON will have great difficulty in appeasing the wrath of those men. It will be as much as he can do to heal the breach in his own party without making an aggressive fight on the Democracy.

IT will be noted that when McKINLEY started to perpetrate a blunder in the conention he called Col. SHEPARD to the chair: The selection was an inspiration. As a presiding officer when a convention is to consider an asinine blunder the earth does not contain the equal of Col. SHEP-grandfather 'presents in American history the parallel of the younger PITT." When we remember what PITT was and HARRISON is, DEPEW's comparison is Ed Stecker Dangerously Stabbed by a Fellow Farm Hand.

BOTH ENIFE AND PITCHFORK WERE USED ON HIM.

After a Desperate Struggle He Fells His Assailant and Then Faints Away-The Assault Committed on Jabob Brachel's Farm on the Gravois Road-Other Police Matters.

Gravois road, near the Tesson road, in a precarious condition from the effects of in-juries received about the chest inflicted by yesterday afternoon, Stecker and John, late yesterday afternoon, Stecker and John are both employed by Jacob Erschel, a well-known farmer in that section of St. Louis County. During the dinner hour yesterday there was a dispute about making hay, which alminated in a quarrel. After dinner the sea went to work and nothing more was thought of the matter. About 5:30 o'clock the men returned from the field and threw themselves under a shade tree to cool off, as they were uncomfortably warm. John, who is a man about 40 years of age, was very sullen, and when spoken to would answer in an angry mood. Stecker went to the barn and climbing to the hay mow, threw himself on the hay and fell asleep. Hardly had he closed his eyes, when John, it is alleged, stealthly climbed the ladder, pulled out a long knife and plunged it into Stecker's left side above the heart. Stecker, who is a powerful young man, jumped to his feet, hardly realizing what had happened. He was too slow, for his cowardly assallant, who again plunged the knife, it is alleged, into his right breast. Stecker, seeing that he had an ugiy customer to deal with, and knowing that the man intended to kill him, rushed at him and dealt him a severe blow in the face. Another blow knocked the knife out of his hand. John then seized an itchfork add plunged the prongs into Stecker's right arm. The young fellow then rushed at his assallant and struck him a powerful blow on the face that felled him. Hastily descending the ladder, he gave an alarm, but fell unconscious on the floor before he could explain matters. Mr. Erschel, not knowing what had happened, and supposing that the man was overheated, applied lee to him. When stecker recovered consciousness and explained matters, a search was instituted for John, but he was supposing that the man was overheated applied lee to him. When stecker recovered consciousness and explained matters, a search was instituted for John, but he was listituted for John, but he was gone. Mr. Erschel then got his family to hitch up a team and drive to Carondelet for medical assistance. He brought Stecker along, and at 1 o'clock this morning reached Dr. Starkloff's office. The wounds were examined and found to be very serious. After dressing them he was returned to his home. The examination revealed that the knife just missed the heart by a tenth of an inch. Stecker-told his story to the doctor, and the latter suggested that the man could be apprehended. It is doubtful whether Stecker wi

Mr. Clover on McCauley's Plea. Circuit Attorney Clover was at the Four Courts this morning, and in reply to the criticisms of the Police Department on him for letting Tum McCauley off with two years in the Pentientiary, said that it would have been impossible to convict McCauley of murder in the first degree. "It seems to me," said Mr. Clover, "that the police ought to attend to their own business and let me conduct my own office in my own way. I wouldn't think of going into Chief Harrigan's office and telling him that he should or should not have done or should or should not have done or should or should not do certain things, and it seems to me that they ought to keep their criticisms of me, if they have any, to them selves. The fact in regard to the McCauley case is that McCauley was struck three or four blows by his victim before he used his knife on him, and that it would have been absolutely impossible to convict him of murder in the first degree on the testimony I had. The witnesses were roustabouts and the testimony was conflicting. Murder in the second degree was impossible under the law, as the elements of that crime as defined by the Statutes were absent from this assault. Under the law, McCauley was guilty of either murder in the first degree or manslaughter, and the Judge would have so instructed the jury. He couldn't have been convicted for murder in the first degree, and I gave him the highest punishment I could give him under the circumstances. It is the fault of the law-makers and not mine that no intermediate punishment is provided for such cases. I thought the man ought to get been impossible to convict McCauley of mur-

TRESPASSING COWS.

Suburban Residents Annoyed by an In The cow question has proven to be the leading issue in suburban affairs. Inhabitants of Chamberlain Park and other suburban residence districts in the new city limits are greatly wrought up over the depradations of trespassing animals. There seems to be a practice of letting cows go untethered at night with much consequent damage to lawns, shrubbery and flower beds. Moses Greenwood, Jr., the well known real estate agent, called on City Counselor Marshall this morning for legal advice on the cow question. He told a very pitiful tale. According to his statement his shrubbery was tramped down every evening by wandering bovines and when he ventured to capture one of the trespassers and impound him he was replevined by the owner and fined S. He said there was no legal redress in the vicinity as the Constable owned some of the trespassing cows and the Justice of the Peace always let him off. Greenwood said the suburban residents were looking for a presidential candidate who would ran on the cow platform and he could have their unanimous support. Neither the Police Department nor the City Marshal oan residence districts in the new city limit

There will be plenty more music in the Board of Public Improvements before the con-tract for cut stone work on the new City Hall is let. Commissioners Murphy and Southard are for awarding the contract to Bannon and Fitzgerald, the lowest bidders, while Commissioners Fechter and Holman are for rejecting the bids. The matter is a trifle complicated, owing to an irregularity in the way in which the contracts were let. No estimate was made by the architect for the board and the bidders had to compute their amounts from the plans. It was only after the bids had beed opened and in the hands of the committee that Architect Mann furnished an estimate. It was mainly on account of this way of proceedure that Commissioner Murphy objected to the rejection of the bids attresterday's meeting.

One peculiar feature of the matter is that the specifications call for cream buff stone. The best quality of this stone is furnished by the Cleveland Stone Co. are said to be very friendly. The Pickel Stone Co., who have the second highest bidders, did not furnish a sample of the Amherst buff stone which the Cleveland Company is pushing. Architect Mann's estimate, it is said, was made to knock out their bid. The matter will be still very compileated, as Commissioner Murphy has received an expert report on the Amherst stone, which Architect Mann and the committee want so badly, saying that it will lose its color and show iron rust very quickly. The matter may probably be decided next Tuesday.

The Board of Public Improvements visited Forest Park yesterday and examined the various locations proposed for the new res-taurant that Mr. Schweikbardt is compelled to erect under his contract with the city. The property owners along the north side of the park presented a petition urging that the location be changed. There is a great deal of valuable residence property along the north side and in deference to the owners the site will probably be changed. The Committee on Parks will report on the matter next. Tuesday. The route of the proposed Belt line around the park was also visited, and at a meetof the board held after the return trip it was decided on motion of Commissioner Able to draft a franchise for the proposed line and dispose of it to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be devoted to beautifying the park. The motion was unanimously adopted. This initial step in the matter of auctioning municipal franchises will be watched with considerable interest.

present would be most detrimental to its true interests. We have two classes of population, the American and European and the Mexican. The latter are bitterly pposed to the former, not always without reason, for the Americans are accustomed to treat the "greasors" with scant ceremony. As matters now stand the Americans, having control of the courts through appointments from Washington are able to secure justice. But if the bench could be occupied by hexicans and juries summoned by Mexican sheriffs, we might as well all leave the State. The great majority of land in the State is covered by two or more claims, and suits are continually being brought on old Spanish titles. No one familiar with New Mexico an fail to see how closely the Mexicans hold together. Since the Mexican war we have save in a few exceptional cases, utterly failed to Americanize them, and they are firmly opposed to Americans and American fileas. At present they are in the majority, and if they can make this majority felt in elections a stop will be put to further immigration, and emigration will get in. I do not believe that an American would stand the smallest chance before a Mexican jury when opposed to a Mexican, of obtaining justice. We might as well leave if the lexicans get control. At the present rate of immigration the numerical superfority of the ing justice. We might as well leave it in Mexicans get control. At the present rate of immigration the numerical superiority of the Mexicans will soon end, but if the territory is admitted as a State before such is the case, I will be most detrimental to the interests of all. There is no doubt if the bill come before the Senate that a protest will be mad by citizens of New Mexico."

as the attending physician bent over her cot in the City Hospital. "If I'm going to live I want to see him."

"Frank who?" the doctor inquired.

"You know him?" said the girl. "He's been out here himself."

She meant Frank S. Jones, a young cierk, who lives at 908 Chambers street. About a week ago he was found on the street by a policeman staggering, but too weak to be merely drunk. He was taken to the City Hospital, and it was found there that he had been poisoned by morphine. He was saved by the physicians, and as he stoutly asserted that he had not taken the poison the police undertook to ascertain how he had got into such a condition. He told them that he had won $150 on the races and had come down town to celebrate the lucky stroke by drinking champagne. He fell in with two young fellows, who were good companions, and after that he remembered nothing more till he was aroused by the doctors at the hospital. Before Jones left the hospital that morning a girl who said her name was Mabel Lewis came to see him, and the two had along talk. Then she went away without telling anything about herself to the doctor. Early this morning as was brought to the hospital suffering herself from morphine poisoning. The doctors were annoyed. Neither her dress nor her manner suggested the down-town class of women, and she seemed anxious to conceal her address after they had got her on the road to recovery. When she asked the doctors to send for young Jones this morning she was told that she could leave the hospital herself in a few hours. She did so shortly before howered hat on this morning, waiting to leave howered hat on this morning, waiting to leave

POTHERINGHAM A LAW OFFICER.

David S. Fotheringham, the Adams Express messenger who was rebbed by Jim Cummings five years ago on the 'Frisco road, is now an officer of the law in a Western town. Fotheringham was a quiet, well-behaved country boy with a liking for books and a freer life when the train robbery occurred. His arrest and his subsequent experience with lawyers, courts, detectives and criminals gave him a glimpse of a life that was fascinating. After he recovered a large sum of money as damages from the Adams Express Co.. he left Missouri, and disappeared from the eyes of the people who had been taiking about him for six months. Now he turns up as a Deputy United States Marshal in Anaconda, Mont., who wants the St. Louis officers to give him some information about a man hamed H. W. Burkhart, who has just sued the little mining camp for damages, claiming down on a defective sidewalk. Nobody knows Burkhart there, but he says he can obtain a guarantee of his business standing from Crow. Hargadine & Co. of St. Louis. Chief of Detectives William Desmond has had inquiry made here, and has written Deputy Marshal Fotheringham that nothing can be found out about Mr. Burkhart. Crow. Hargadine & Co. do not know him. The letter adds, in a suggestive way, that the Police Department knows a good deal about a one-legged ex-convict who some time ago pretended

All Hope of Reconciliation Abandoned by John Dillon.

CARTHYITES AND PARNELLITES DRIFTING FARTHER APART.

Warning From Liberal Leaders That Unity Must Be Effected or Home Rule Abandoned - Exciting Annexation Meeting in Canada-The British Parliament-South American News-Gen-

LONDON, June 11 .- John Dillon was interviewed in Dublin yesterday in regard to the present political situation in Ireland and his tc., can be effected if the can als at present to the present political situation in Ireland and his proposals for peace between the two factions.

Mr. Dillon said he found it almost impossible to believe that Mr. Redmond had gone to America to advocate peace in the face of the attitude that Mr. Redmond and his friends had all along adopted.

"Is it true," he was asked, "that you have always favored conciliation?"

"It is course true; and further, myself and "Not the slightest. I fear there is no cour left but to let the people give a verdict be-tween the Redmond party's platform and our own at the polls."

"Is there no difference between the political principles of the two parties?"

"None that I am able to discover, and Mr. Redmond, in speaking at Cork last Sunday, stated as much."

In reply to further questions, Mr. Dillo declared that the Irish people would not declared that the Irish people would not consent to be pledged against the unity of the Nationalist ranks. Mr. Dillon said that Mr. Harrington, speaking formally in behalf of the Parnellites, had declared that they were prepared for armistice, but not for union, with the men who had taken the course the anti-Parnellites had

"What results did you anticipate?"
"I believe that such a plan would produce a result much the same as will be brought about after many bitter contests, with this difference—that it will probably have given Mr. Redmond's friends two or three more seats than they can win at the elections. I winced that such friendly arbitration uld have resulted in an early reunion of Nationalist forces." What was the nature of Mr. Harrington's

"Mr. Harrington proposes that each party retain the seats they now hold."

"Why can't the offer be accepted?"

"For the all-sufficient reason that there is no power on earth to induce the constituencies to agree to it. There are now twenty-nine Parnellites. By far the greater number nine Parnellites. By far the greater number of these twenty-nine constituencies condemn by overwhelming majorities the policy of their representatives, and could by no conceivable means be induced to re-elect them. They would most certainly revolt if we accepted such a proposal. The country wants united party. Very few constituencies would accept members advocating two parties.

"It is an absurd exaggeration. I believe that there are only four seats in Ireland which Farnellite votes could give to the Tories. I do not believe that the voters, it asked to do so by the leaders, would commit such treason to the National cause."

In reference to Mr. Dillon's statement the less representative learned in the Parnellheadquarters last night that the Liberal leaders had informally communicated to both sections of the Irish party the warning that unless the McCarthylte and Parnellite contests were abandoned the home rule cause would be hopelessly ruined. It was forcibly pointed out that a repetition of the scenes ruinead during the bye-elections lately held witnessed during the bye-elections lately held in Cork, Kilkenny and Waterford would ruin the chances of the Liberals in the English constituencies.

He added that Archand Mr. McCarthy's. He added that Archibishop Croke opposes Archbishop Walsh's support of Mr. Healy. The bishops are, in fact, divided into three sections—namely, adherents of Mr. Dillon, adherents of Mr. Dillon, adherents of Mr. Healy and those holding that it is injurious to the interests of the church to interfere with politics. The opening of the law courts, it is said, will see a new development in regard to the Paris funds. Mr. Lowden, one of the eriginators of the Land League, has put in a claim on behalf of the old league trustess. Mr. Lowden's affidavit would prevent either side from having access to the money. In the meantime Banker Monroe has declared that he would not part with the money until the French courts decided the matter, the English courts having no jurisdiction in France. Mr. Balfour, in his state-ment on Monday, will not, it is expected, announce the date of the general elections, but will merely detail business to be done prior to the dissolution of Parliament. The election campaign is now in full swing.

Mr. Chamberiain has opened his Birmingham campaign in a distinctly pugnacious and confident style. Yesterday he propounded an elaborate social scheme of legislation for the new parliament, consisting of four planks—first, the creation of permanent courts of arbitration to settle the labor disputes; second compulsion of amployers to putes; second, compuision of employers to provide insurance against accidents to work-men: third, state regulation of the hours of men; third, state regulation of the hours of labor, and fourth, State pensioning of the figed poor.

A GOVERNMENT DEFEAT. MONTEVIDEO, June 11.—Advices received in this city from the rebellious State of Matto Grosso, Brazil, announcing terrific fighting in and around the capitol, Cuyaba, and the defeat of the Government soldiers sent from Rio Janeiro, to quell the uprising. The battle is said to have been on May 7 and lasted antil May 13. The Govenment troops are reported to have left 1,000 killed on the battlefield and even a larger number wounded. Cuyaba was then entered and sacked by the victorious rebels, who also assassinated all the Government officials. The revolutionists say that they have no desire to secode from the Republic, but that they want a good Gov-ernor and officials, chosen by the residents of the State and not arbitrarily imposed upon them by Mio Janeiro authorities.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

THE CZAR ANNOYED - FRENCH FINANCES -BRIEFS.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 11.—It is asserted on apparently good authority that the Czar has reprimended the Grand Duke Constantine for visiting President Carno withou permission from the Czar. While princes of the imperial family have a right to do as they please when abroad in giving and receiving unofficial courtesy, it is the invaria-ble rule to ask the consent of the Czar before taking part in any official function. It would not follow, that, because the Czar repri-manded Constantine, he therefore did not desire that Prince to represent Russia at the Nancy fetes. The autocrat is very jealous of his rights as the head of the house of Romanoff, and the reprimand may have been simply because an important form is not observed by the Grand Duke.

Edward Gorman, the variety actor, was in the First District Folice. Court yesterday to answer the charge made against him by Mrs. Lily Hitchcock, but the case was laid over until next à ouday. Gorman says the girl's parents' name is Pickard. He also alleges that her husband's name is not Hitchcock, but Kroner, and that he is at her home in Buda, Ill., minding her 2-year-ola child. Gorman alleges that she came every night to an Indian Medicine Company's show, where he was symployed as a song and dance artist, and afterwards when the combination

Not Responsible.

As regards food adulteration, the grocer is in no wise responsible for the acts of the manufacturer. If people want goods at cheap figures they must expect quality to correspond. Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts, Vanilla, Lemon, etc., come a few cents higher than other extracts in the market, but they contain no poisonous or hurtful matter as an adulterant; their quality is the high-est, their flavor the finest and their perfect purity established.

left Buda and went to Mackinaw she tele-graphed to him to come to Peorla to meet her. It was only then, German alleges, that she told him that she was married, He alleges that the watches and rings were pawned at her suggestion to pay their way to St. Louis. Gorman also claims that the woman who is said to have gone to the Four Courts with Mrs. Gorman to get the warrant is Belle Gal-lagher, who has tried and succeeded in turn-ing Lillie against him.

Fair Grounds, Tuesday, June 14, 1892 AHEAD OF THEM ALL!

OUR ONLY MCNICHOLS. There's many a slip twixt cup and lip, Money is hard to get and to keep; But now every man can have a chance. To help himself, if he don's go to sleep. Money is pleasant to have and the hold, Life is without it, in fact not fanny; Yet not so much so as onee on a time. Credit is now as good as money.

Go to McNichol, the installment plan Is what will bring you ease; Do not be atraid to ask And learn to pay up by degrees. Many folks have sought this means, To mend their way of life, Making a beautiful and coxy home To shelter little one and wife.

Tis easy when you know the way,
As thousands know to their content;
No sum could give you greater juy,
Nor could your gold be wiser spont.
You make your payments as you can,
Mac never makes you feel your debt;
'Its secret, careful and discroet,
And all the goods you want, you get.

Go now, young people who would wed, Uhoose what you need to round your joy; No other friend would do as much As our McNichol! He's the boy! House, rooms or flat, it matters not, Fine furniture, carpots, cartsins—all The best, the lowest pricod, most new, You'll get it if only you will call.

Now that everybody knows this, it seems strange added that any man or woman should do without a ome. So easy. Just see

CITY REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

N SELECTING a home in the suburbs, the first consideration for a business man is its accessibility to the city. No matter how delightful and attractive the suburban home may be in itself, if it is difficult of access, or if the time necessarily consumed in going to and from business be considerable, the sacrifice incurred thereby will be felt by most men to be more than they can afford. In this respect is most fortunate in being situated where it is.

It is 91 miles from the Union Depot, and is on the Missouri Pacific Railroad, which is the only double track railroad leading out of St. Louis. At present there are thirty-two accommodation trains daily, which is considerably more than any other St. Louis road runs for its suburban passengers. The trains are run at such hours as to accommodate all classes of business men, and several of them make no stops at stations west of Grand Avenue, thereby making the time from the Union Depot only twenty-five minutes. There are also several morning and afternoon trains which are run practically for the convenience of ladies, and four night trains, which leave the Union Depot at intervals of about one hour, up to 11:30 o'clock. The management of the road is showing a desire to provide ample accommodations for all its patrons, and is putting on new trains every year, as the suburban population increases.

Webster Park is less than half mile distant from Old Orchard and Selma, on the Frisco Railroad, furnishing additional daily trains, and giving residents the advantages of both roads. A handsome illustrated pamphlet, giving free and complete information, can be had by Bandit has brought suit in the United States Court in his extensive ranch of cattle and personal property. Bandman and Miss Bandit formed a partnership in the theatrical business at 8an Francisco about ten Fears ago and made a tour of Australia, Ceylon, India and other countries in the Eastern Hemisphere, playing "Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde." Upon their return they continued the performance through this country, after which Bandman became infatuated with the cattle business and bought and stocked a franch near Missoula, Mont. One half of the money, estimated at $50,000, expended belonged to Miss Bandit as her share of the profits in the theatrical business. This is her claim.

POISONED THE CHICKENS. Fred Reinecke of Carondelet in a Feud

nue, Carondelet, bad a warrant issued this morning for the arrest of Minnie and Edward Horton of 57114South Broadway, charging them with poisoning his chickens. It is a new and unusual proceeding and has no precedent in the Supreme or Appellate Courts decisions, as far as attorney James O'Brien, representing Reinecks, could find. Mr. Reinecke and his family have been living at 8/12 Pennsylvania avenue quite a period. Some time ago the Horton family colored, moved into 8/11 South Broadway, the back yard of which adjoins Reinecke's back yard. A quarrel arose among the children recently which the mothers tried to straighten out, with the mothers tried to straighten out, with the result of bringing on a feud. The husbands took up the quarrel and for the past month have been very bitter. The cans, old rags and other toxens of esteem were thrown from one yard to the other. Not satisfied with this, the Hortons resorted to other tactics. One morning Mr. Beinecke found several fine chickens he had been raising, dead in the yard. He, of course, charged the Hortons with the deed. Not long after that he found several more chickens dead in the cound several more chickens dead in the self of the fact of the family of the ground was a handful of swollen grains of corn. Picking up the corn and putting the chickens in a basket, he took them to several physicians, leaving a dead chicken and some corn with each. He also called on Dr. Luceking of the Washington University and assed for an analysis of the fowl's stomach. A few days later he was informed

They Will Spend To-Morrow With Their

To-morrow the newspaper carriers of the city and their friends will hold a picnic at hamona Park, on the St. Louis and Suburban Electric Railway. A band of musicians will be in attendance and furnish music for the dancing and during the concert and enternt. A choice programme of and instrumental music and vocal and instrumental music and specialties has been arranged and besides that there will be games and sports. The first event will be adash of 100 yards for the ladies. A tug-of-war in which everyone may take part will follow. There will also be a shooting contest for addes and gentlemen. The most amusing of all the events will be an obstacle race of one fourth mile free for all, in which the contestants will be compelled to crawl, roll, jump and climb. The last event will be a one-mile walk, open only to carriers, who will no doubt surprise the spectators with their speed, and show what a daily run in delivering papers will do for those who follow that occupation. The handsome prizes which will be awarded the winner and second in all events are now on exhibition in the show-windows of the Mermod & Jaccard Jewelry Co., on Broadway.

A Pistol to Her Head.

Detectives Cavan and McFarland last night arrested Mickey Sullivan, an ex-convict, on a charge of burglary and larceny. On the night of June 6 the residence of Ben O'Keefe was burgiarized and money, clothes and jewelry valued at $500 taken. The bed-room of Mr. and Mrs. O'Keefe was the last room entered. While in there the burglar awakened Mrs. O'Keefe, and when about to scream he placed a pistol to her head and warned her not to make any noise until he was safely out of the house. Mrs. O'Keefe fainted, and an hour later, when she had re vived, she awoke her husband and gave the alarm.

The next morning the police were given a good description of the burglar, and last night sullivan was arrested on suspicion of being the man. Mrs. O'Keefe picked him out of five men as the burglar. A warrant will be applied for to-day.

Cuticura Remedies, and Says

Father Went 25 Miles to Get Cuticure Others to Do as He Did.

My child broke out with scrofula when two months old, and we tried everything that the docfor could do. It took out his hair and broke out on his limbs and nose. It was then CUTICURA REMEDIES were recommended by our doctor who attended him, and is now sitting here. The doctor said CUTICURA REMEDIES cared my child, and recommends them for all diseases of the skin and blood. It did not take but one set of CUTICURA REMEDIES. I went twenty-five miles to get them. My child is well and has a fine head of hair as can be, for which I feel thankful to you, for my wife is in bad health. I have recommended CUTICURA REMEDIES to others. Print this if you think it will cause any person to do as I did.

The Browns Will Return From Their Trip Next Week.

THEY WILL HAVE AS THEIR OPPONENTS COMISKEY'S CINCINNATI REDS.

Work Done by the Team on the Present Trip-Two Games Out of Three Taken From Both Boston and Brooklyn-Re sult of Yesterday's Racing at the Fair

After an absence of an even month the trowns will return home next Thursday and pen up with Charley Comiskey's Cinc Beds. The present trip is the first extensive one the Browns have taken this season, and taken as a whole You der Ahe's pets have more than realized expectations. They have done what no other team in the League has, taken two games out of three from both Brooklyn and Boston on the latter teams' own grounds. While their standing in the the Browns have with the exception of yesterday been playing a fair game. Char-ley Getzein, the new pitcher, did ley Getzein, the new pitcher, did not show very strong yesterday, but in the other two games in which he officiated he more than realized expectations. Kid Gleason has, of course, been doing the best work in the box. In fact, taken as a whole, the Kid seems to be holding his own with the best of them. Dick Buckley has been doing the catching. Bird has, however, relieved him in a number of games, which were either won or lost. According to reports, however, Walter Brodie has been doing the star work of them all. While in Boston, where he played last season, Brodie was enthusiastically received, and he showed them that he still knew how to play the game. That there will knew how to play the game. That there will be some changes when the club returns home is universally believed. Pitcher Easton, and possibly Catcher Moran, will, it is expected, be let go. Easton will probably locate in the Western League. New York is locate in the Western League. New York is weak as far as backstops are concerned, and as Moran is well liked there it will not cause much surprise in this city to see him wearing a Giant uniform before long. Cub Stricker will hardly come back with the Browns. Both Washington and Baltimore have been after the little second baseman ever since Crooks succeeded him. If Chris can trade Cub for some pitcher, either Buffinton, Cobb, Killen or Knell, it is not probable he will hesitate long in doing so, Unless, however, a good pitcher can be secured for him, Stricker will probably be continued on the pay-rolls, as he is a valuable player.

Next faturday and Sunday Jack Chapman's Louisville Colonels will make their first appearance here this season. The Colonels started out splendidly the early part of the season, but they soon died out and at present are playing the game the knowing ones predicted they would. After the Louisville games the Browns will go to Chicago, where they play two games. The same number will follow at this point with Cleveland and Pittsburg. A run over to Louisville will then follow, after which Von der Ahe will return with his men and prepare them for the Fourth of July games with Harry Wright's Philadelphia Quakers. Louisville Colonels will make their first ap

The Browns were slaughtered twice at Balore yesterday. Getzeln started out to pitch in the first game, but after ten runs and been scored he retired in favor of Young, Von der Ahe's new find. The same number of runs in an equal number of innings caused his retirement. Breitenstein was substituted in the fifth, and for the first two innings he occupied the box it seemed as if he would he occupied the box it seemed as if he would meet with as warm a reception as his two predecessors. He settled down, however, in the seventh and no more runs were made off him. The field work of the Browns, especially Crooks, Carroll and Brodie, in this contest was miserable. Catcher Robinson led in the batting for Baltimore, breaking the season's record with seven safe hits. Notwithstanding the manner in which the same team treated him in the first game, Getzein concluded to go in against them in the second. He was, however, treated to another dose of the same medicine, a total of thirteen hits being made off his delivery. Had it not been for the splendid support accorded him the

He was, however, treated to another dose of the same medicine, a total of thirteen hits being made off his delivery. Had it not been for the spiendid support accorded him the Baltimore total would have been much larger. Van Haltren led in the batting for the Orioles in this game, with a total of five safe hits. Glasscock, Pinkney and Buckley all played in excellent form. The summaries of noting games follow:

The Suburban, to be run one week from to day at the Coney Island Jockey Club, will be the great race of the season in the East. It is estimated that the greatest crowd ever seen great event. Longstreet was never named; Kingston, who would have had a good chance will not start. The declarations are Cassius Fairview, Loantaka, L'Intrigante, Tristan and Teuton. There will probably be ten or twelve starters, and the field will be remarkably good. Major Domo is now the favorite Tenny is certain to be a starter, and will be prepared specially for the event. Tournament is in very light, 112 pounds, and is going well and looking as well and strong as on the day when he galloped in an easy winner of the Realization two years ago. Pierre Lorillard will start Curt Gunn, and Judge Morrow and Pessara will meet again. Bermuda, the fast colt of Byron McClelland, is again rounding into condition and if his game log does not interfere will be very dangerous. It is expected that His Highness will be a starter. English Lady, well known in the West, will be a starter and her owners have backed her very heavily. It looks as if Major Domo ought to win but there may be another great surprise like that of Loantaka last year. Fairview, Loantaka, L'Intrigante, Tristar says that he will get well. The filly will probably be permanently disabled.

The gray horse Cambyses, by Mortemer, out of Lizzie Lucas, bred by Pierre Lorillard at the Rancocas stud in 1884, died ten days ago in Virginia, where he was in the stud. Cambyses was a horse of rare proportions, a very game animal with quite a lot of speed, and one of the greatest weight carriers the American turf ever saw. He ran his best races in the colors of Pierre Lorillard, Jr. He was being bred to ordinary mares in Virginia, in the hope of securing a high type of hunter and saddle horse.

George V. Hankins denied the rumor current that he was endeavoring to buy Wadsworth, the 3-year-old that is touted to win the Garfield derby Just how much Wadsworth is worth would be hard to tell. An offer of 8,000 was refused. Outside of the Garfield Derby Wadsworth has no big stake engagement. The highest offer for a 8-year-old this season was for Patron, $25,000. The Eastern turfmen who went on to San Francisco to buy Zaldivar would offer $7,000 only. The Eastern turfmen think that the 3-year-olds of the West do not class with those of the East.

Three three-minut rounds were fought, in which Matthews had the best of it, but did not succeed in knock-ing out his man, Matthews is in splendid condition and is training hard. few the Worst Invasion of Modern Times

When men or women feel depressed or debili-tated at the present day, it is common to say,
"I think I have malaria." What is malaria?
It is only germs that get into the body; germs that thrive and increase unless they are killed, germs that worm themselves all through the system; germs that ruin the health and undermine the life. They are aggressive, they feed upon the body, they must be killed. Hany things which have been advocated for killing these germs will not do so. It has been thought these germs will not do so. It has been thought that quinine would accomplish this, but many people cannot take quinine: it disagrees with them, it often anuscates. It is known, however; that pure spirits taken in moderation will kill and entirely exterminate the worst army of germs which ever invaded the system. They cannot withstand it. Under the influence of pure stimulants the germs are killed, and the body is strengthened to expel them from the system, and thus restore the health.

It should not be understood, however, the all spirits will do this; few will. It requires something specially pure and specially designed for this purpose, and that is precisely what Duffy's Pure Mait Whisky is. It is ascientific, medicinal preparation. It does not rank with the ordinary whisties, but is specially designed for fortifying the body and repelling disease. It has the highest indorsements of doctors and scioutiest; it is wonderfully popular because it is so efficient and powerful. Do not be descived into the use of any other, for there is no other preparation upon the market that can accomplish what is accomplished by Duffy's Fure Mait. Tou will find that it is kept by reliable druggists and grocers.

NO WORD FROM GOMPERS.

The Striking Rivermen Etili Awaiting the Arrival of the Labor Chief. Mr. Samuel Gompers, President of th American Federation of Labor, cometh not. nor does he give any hint of when he may be expected in St. Louis. He seems to be out of the reach of the wires—leastwise the local labor leaders profess not to know where he is nor how he can be reached; nor do they know when he will be here. They are looking for a telegram from him at any time, but they say they would not be surprised to see him drop into the city quietly without any they say they would not be surprised to see him drop into the city quietly without any further announcement.

When he comes, it seems to be conceded that after becoming apprized of the situation by the federate unionists he will seek a conference with Capt. Mason of the Anchor Line. Capt. Mason says he will have no objection to talking with Mr. Goupers, and he hopes to convince him that the position of the Anchor Line is tenable and that that of the men is subject to criticism.

There was no trouble on the Levee this morning. The summary way in which the police dealt with certain offenders yesterday is having a good effect. Two or three roustabouts began to talk and act a little unly yesterday and the boat authorities promptly summoned the police and when the blue coats hove in sight the men broke and ran in several directions, dodging babind obstructions until they got away. One of them, as he was flying, kept feeling for his hip pocket as though he had a gun there. He ran down a gang plank that terminated in several feet of water, but plunged unhestatingly into the flood, and foundered out and up on the levee and disappeared in some place near Walnut street.

The "Inland Seaman's" headquarters on Lucas avenue are crowded with roustabouts who sympathize with the lockout of the Marine Engineers and firemen. They are fed by the union committees.

DOCTORS? PShaw! Take BREGHAM'S PILLS

Chief of Police Frank E. Clancy of Helena, Ark., who arrived in this city yesterday to take charge of Nathan Carter, alias John Reemey, who was arrested here several days ago charged with being a fugitive from justice, and who is wanted in Helena for murder, claims that on Jan. 2, isol, Carter shot and killed Prince Malloy, a rich old colored planter of Phillips County, Ark. Carter, with Islam White and Henry Young, all colored, supposed Malloy was worth considerable money and resolved to rob him. Clancy alleges one evening they engaged him in conversation, and in the course of it rushed upon him. Malloy resisted and Carter, it is claimed, blew out his brains with a pisiol. The murderers secured 20 cents for the crime. Young and Whits week soon caught. White was tried and hansed. Young was only is years old, and was given twenty-one years in the penitantiary. Carter refuses to go back without a requisition and will probably remain here several days.

ene on Wednesday morning. At the time of curks' announcement, considerable surprise as manifested in his district that he would take a race against his friend from child-odd days. It was romored later on, however, that Mr. Burks was only playing into ir. Byrnes' hand, and was in the race to arry certain counties that Mr. Byrnes could of control, and that when the onvention was held Burks would throw his apport to Byrnes. This rumor was denied y Mr. Burks a week ago, who claimed that a was in the race for the nomination. Then accosted this morning by a Post-District reporter and asked what induced him y make-the race against Byrnes, he said, You will find out shortly, Mr. Byrnes is not candidate, nor will he be."
